features

FORMAL ATTIRE REQUIRED
BY SUSAN GREEN
What does it mean to don a white coat?

BUILDING A STRONG FOUNDATION
BY MATTHEW C. WIENCKE
The Medical School is working to ensure that physicians have the leadership skills they need to succeed.

THE LIFE AND DEATH OF MEMORIES
BY SUSAN GREEN
Our memories are integral to our personal identity, but we cannot take for granted that they will always be with us.

ON THE COVER
Leadership training is becoming a fundamental part of medical education.

Photo by Andy Dean/iStock/Thinkstock
THE HERETIC IN THE LAB
BY CLIFTON LEAF
A new book about the war on cancer highlights the research of Geisel professor Michael Sporn.

departments

LETTER FROM THE DEAN

HEADLINES
Applications on the rise 4
Geisel earns eight-year accreditation 5

ADVANCES
Treating addiction with technology 6
Partners in TB research 7
Sunshine and love in China 8
Surprise findings on a weighty matter 9

VOICES OF GEISEL
Greetings from Stockholm 10

PHILANTHROPY IN ACTION
Ensuring student success 12

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT
Kristen Jogerst (’16) 14

EXPERT INSIGHT
The limitations of personal genetics 16

NOTES FROM THE FIELD
Good neighbors 38

ALUMNI ALBUM
Marc Feldman (’84) 42

GIVING
Giving back, paying forward 44
Honoring Wennberg and supporting future pioneers 46
Celebrating the promise of discovery 47

ART OF MEDICINE
Presents 48